

Pathways / Genesis Recovery Kentucky Center - Morehead Inspiration Center PREA Annual Report: 2017

The Genesis Recovery Kentucky Center and The Morehead Inspiration Center mandate zero tolerance toward all forms of sexual abuse and sexual harassment.

The Prison Rape Elimination Act of September 4, 2003, (Public Law 108-79) was enacted by Congress to address the problem of sexual assault in all US Penal facilities.

PREA supports the elimination, reduction and prevention of sexual assault/rape within our prisons, community correction centers and local jails. PREA applies to Client-on-Client and Staff-on-Client sexual misconduct.

PREA (Prison Rape Elimination Act) Statement: Pathways' Morehead Inspiration Center and Genesis Recovery Kentucky Center have a zero tolerance policy toward all forms of sexual abuse or sexual harassment between any client and staff, volunteers, contractors, visitors, or other clients. Anonymous or third party reports may be made by calling the PREA hotline toll free at 1-833-362-PREA (7732). All reports of sexual abuse or harassment will be administratively investigated by specially trained MIC/GRKC investigators. Sexual Abuse allegations that involve possible criminal behavior will be referred for investigation to the Kentucky Department of Corrections and Kentucky State Police. In such cases, the MIC/GRKC administrative investigators shall cooperate with outside investigators and shall endeavor to remain informed about the progress of the investigation.

This report is published in accordance with PREA standard 115.288.

Assessment of the agency's progress

The Morehead Inspiration Center began the collection of data in 2015. This report will assess the effectiveness of the centers sexual abuse training, prevention, detection, response practices and policies. The Genesis Recovery Kentucky Center began accepting clients at the end of September 2016. This report will assess the effectiveness of the centers sexual abuse training, prevention, detection, response practices and policies. This will be the first report for the Genesis Recovery Kentucky Center.

The Peer Led, Peer Driven Social Model recovery program is the driving force behind the low number of incidents at the both centers. The model provides the clients with empowerment, responsibility and accountability helping them to create and maintain an environment that does not encourage violence or harassment of any kind.

The Centers Staff have received the following PREA training:

- The agency zero-tolerance policy for sexual abuse and sexual harassment;
- How to fulfill their responsibilities under agency sexual abuse and sexual harassment prevention, detection, reporting, and response policies and procedures;
- Residents' right to be free from sexual abuse and sexual harassment;
- The right of residents and employees to be free from retaliation for reporting sexual abuse and sexual harassment;
- The dynamics of sexual abuse and sexual harassment in confinement;
- The common reactions of sexual abuse and sexual harassment victims;
- How to detect and respond to signs of threatened and actual sexual abuse;
- How to avoid inappropriate relationships with residents;
- How to communicate effectively and professionally with residents, including lesbian, gay, bisexual, transgender, intersex, or gender nonconforming residents; and
- How to comply with relevant laws related to mandatory reporting of sexual abuse to outside authorities.

Each center has two staff members who have received the KY-DOC Specialized PREA Investigator training.

Volunteers and Contractors have been trained on the agency's zero-tolerance policy regarding sexual abuse and sexual harassment and have been informed of their responsibilities regarding sexual abuse and sexual harassment prevention, detection and their duty to report and how to report such incidents.
